State Auditor Gordon has furnished to Gov. Hadley, at the latter's request, an estimate of the revenues of the state for the ensuing biennial period, which he puts at $8,300,000. The supreme court of Missouri decided Saturday, that the ballot boxes cannot be opened in the trial of the preliminary election judges and clerks on charges of making false returns in the primary election last August. The Missouri supreme court handed down an opinion last Saturday which sustains the legislative act of two years ago denying the right to do business in the state of Missouri an insurance company which pays its officers a salary in excess of $50,000 a year. This will if enforced, mean that the Prudential, Equitable and the Metropolitan companies must quit business in the state or reduce the salaries of some of their officers.

PROF. B. S. STEARNS.

The many friends of Prof. B. S. Stearns regret to have him cease his labors in our school, which he does this year, after having served seven years as superintendent of the same.

Prof. Stearns came to Hayti in 1901, from Millersville, Mo., and in 1905 was elected as school commissioner, and is at present the President of the southeast Missouri Teachers' Association, having been elected to that place at the last annual session. He was re-elected as school commissioner three terms, and holds that position at present.

He has attended the Cape Girardeau normal several years, and has also attained credits at the State University, where he will re-enter early in this month.

In 1904 he married Miss Sadie Wells, the daughter of our well-known townsman, C. P. Wells, Sr., and has made his home in Hayti continuously since his first advent in the town.

The fact of his having served seven consecutive years as superintendent of the Hayti schools is prima facie evidence of his superiority as an instructor and his popularity, and the high esteem in which the people hold him.

Prof. Stearns is of a retiring disposition, and the continuous honors showered upon him since coming to Hayti, have been without solicitation or effort on his part, and are evidences of the recognition of his true worth as a man of honest integrity and sterling ability.

The pupils of his room presented him with a valuable and beautiful pair of Masonic cuff buttons, as a token of love and esteem.

Prof. Stearns is a 32nd degree Mason, an Odd Fellow and a Modern Woodman, and takes much interest in the work of these orders.

Wherever he will ever go, whatever he may do, he will ever have the earnest wishes of a host of friends in Hayti and Penicost county, and we are most sure that any community may count itself the gainer of a most estimable gentleman in the person of B. S. Stearns.
